PORTFOLIO

by Loubna A.C

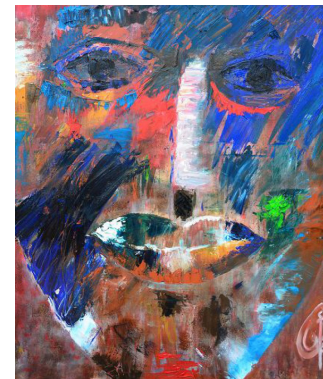

I was born in Casablanca on Africa's northern coast.

Nestled in the far north of the continent it is a wonderland renowned for its amazing artistic an open-air museum.

Since leaving Morocco 28 years ago, I have travelled throughout the world and lived in several places: Russia, Switzerland, England, France and South Africa, experiencing many different countries and cultures.

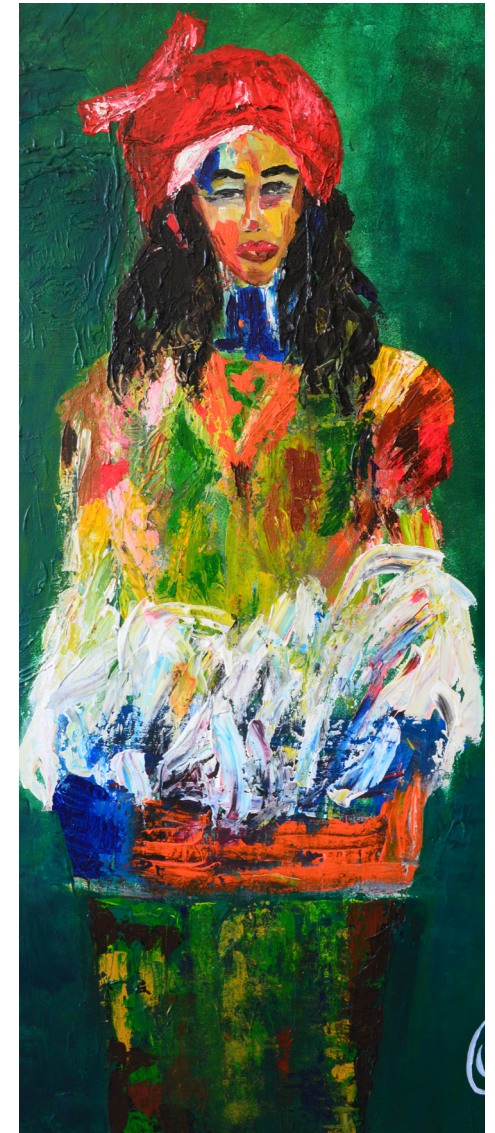

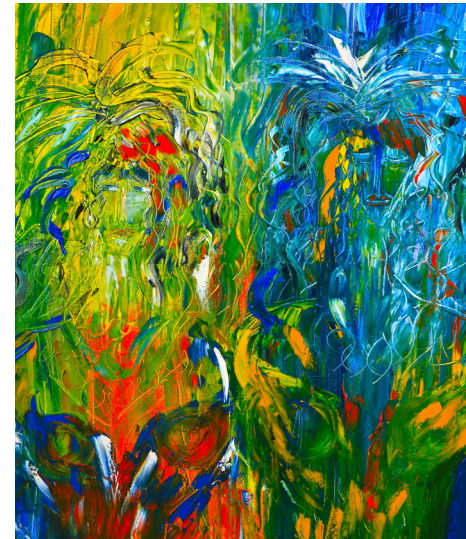

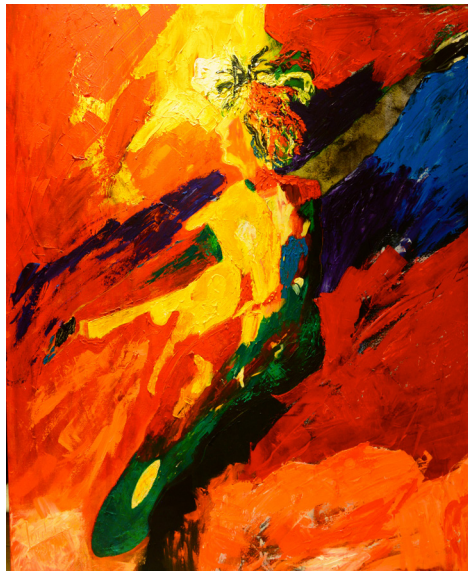

I see the future in my dreams.
My dreams become my art and the canvas holds my journey. I dream of a thousand pictures, then I transform my dreams into living works of art, colour, and texture.
It is said a picture tells a thousand stories, my story is of a thousand pictures.

Each canvas is a chapter where I lose all sense of reality and express my emotions. Every finished canvas is a chapter in my story.

I TAKE INSPIRATION FROM MY PAST AND MY PRESENT; ALL AROUND ME IN THE FACES OF THE PEOPLE I MEET.

My favourite subjects are women.
They are smart, independent,
generous and elegant.
